Dated, Thiruvananthapuram, 22/09/2010

- Read:- 1. G.O.(P).No.219/97/GEdn dated 20/6/1997.
2. Circular No.9679/J2/99/GEdn. dated 24-3-1999.
3. G.O.(P) No.171/09/GEdn dated 22-8-2009.

ORDER

In the order read as first paper above, Government had ordered that the teacher-student ratio would be revised from 1:45 to 1:40 in the schools affected by the specific problem of division fall for the limited purpose of accommodating the teachers rendered surplus for the year 1997- 1998. Since then this benefit has been extended every year by specific orders. As per Government order read as 3rd paper above, the above benefit was extended for the year 2009-10 also.

2. Representations from various quarters have been received requesting to extend the benefit of 1:40 teacher-student ratio to the academic year 2010-11 also.

3. Government after examining the case in detail and are pleased to order that the benefit of 1:40 teacher -student ratio will be extended to the academic year 2010-11 also as a special case in the schools affected by the specific problem of division fall, for the limited purpose of accommodating the teachers rendered surplus, subject to the condition that no post will be created on this account. The Educational Officers will revise the staff fixation orders accordingly, wherever found necessary.

4. Government are also pleased to extend the benefit of 1:40 teacher-student ratio as sanctioned to mainstream teachers to the Specialist Teachers also during the academic year 2010-2011 as a special case, by allowing 10% reduction from the mandatory required number of students, so as to retain those regular Specialist Teachers who are rendered surplus due to division fall, subject to the condition that no posts will be created on this account.
